

Discernment

A way of thinking about how a Christian community effectively and efficiently enters into discernment is as the intertwining of three threads.

The Community's Prayer

[Eucharist, Personal Devotions, etc]

Processes that allow common assessment

Knowing each other's story

